Motor Service Firm Moves to New Location
The sale of a commercial building on Carson Street near Western Ave., in Torrance, to the M. & W. Electric Motor Service Company was announced by Gerald L. Alter, realtor of the Alter Realty and Insurance. This property, located at 1730 W. Carson St., now being escrowed at the Torrance Escrow Guaranty Co. will be new home of M. & W. Motor Service as soon as it can be remodeled to suit their needs. Arlington D. Weweke, owner of the M. & W. Electric Motor Service Co. has been operating an electric motor repair service and electric motor rewinding service at 1875 W. Carson in Torrance for the past three years, handling commercial, industrial and individual work, and the new larger quarters will enable them to handle their expanding business.

Local Reserve Officer Receives Colonel's Praise

Second Lieut. William G. Rook, 1508 Fern ave., distinguished himself while training with the First division of the National Guard Reserve last week at Camp Cooke. As assistant headquarters commandant he led a successful sortie down a river bed and captured several "prisoners." He received the praise of Lt. Col. Martin F. Shakeley, division commander. Governor Earl Warren, during his inspection tour of guard activities at Camp Cooke Friday, spoke highly of the reservists who "now return to their civilian occupations at stores, factories and offices." Rook returned Saturday afternoon.

Sea-eras Defeat Tartarettes at Walteria Park

Syd Flahive singled in Marion Hixon, the winning run, in the fifth inning to give the undefeated Sea-eras a 5-4 edge over the Tartarettes last Thursday evening at Walteria Park. With two out in the final frame, the seventh, Joyce Bernhart of the Islanders lashed out a homerun but the rally was cut short when the next batter grounded out. Thursday's other fray was also a close contest as the Rebels downed Harvey, 12-11. Betty Peterson, winning hurler, led her squad at the plate with a double and a single in four trips.

Monday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. George Overton of Indianapolis, Indiana, spent Monday, June 24th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hunt, of 1529 West 205th street, Torrance.
